Skills & Experience Summary

Since qualifying as an Occupational Therapist in 2008, Mell has gained considerable experience in the field of occupational therapy and case management. She spent her early career working in social services, supporting clients with equipment and adaptation needs, as well as providing a supervisory role to other qualified staff. Mell has been working as a case manager for eight years and has considerable experience in working with adults with brain injuries, spinal injuries and polytrauma.

Mell provides support to adults who have sustained complex and life changing injuries to rebuild their lives and maximise their potential for independence. Mell works with clients both pre- and post-settlement of personal injury and medical negligence awards and has a sound knowledge of the litigation process. She is experienced in report writing, preparing immediate needs assessments and regular update reports for her clients. Mell is proficient in client led goal setting and review; leading the multi-disciplinary team to work together towards goal attainment for the client.

Mell is experienced in the bespoke recruitment, management, supervision and appraisal of staff teams and is able to identify when this is the most suitable approach for a client. Mell is able to work with statutory services to explore funding available and has a good understanding of statutory processes.
